Radbrook Primary School

Pupils at Radbrook Primary School are continuing their interest in gardening. Key stage 1 pupils have established a sensory garden which has five beds – one for each sense and is being used in conjunction with their work in the classroom. The Parents and Friends Association has recently donated £400 to establish a vegetable garden with raised beds, where the children will plant their vegetables. The children will be doing the planting and hope to have some produce to eat in the summer. A new gardening club will be run this term Pictured right is Andy Curtis with Mr. Stan Steadman (Chair of the governors) doing some planting in the sensory garden. The Parents and Friends Association will be holding a summer Barbecue on Friday 6th July, full details to follow next month.
